

ANILCA TRAINING

Anyone who wants to understand Alaska and its future must understand ANILCA... the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act of 1980

Online course offered over four consecutive half-days:
Tuesday, November 15 – Friday, November 18, 2022
8:30 am to 1:00 pm Alaska Time
Via Zoom Webinar

Course includes:

- Summary of Alaska’s land history from Territorial days to present
- Context of ANILCA’s passage, e.g., issues of the day that led to the “Great Compromise”
- Overview of ANILCA statutory provisions
- Key access provisions for traditional activities, subsistence, inholdings, and transportation & utility systems
- Subsistence on federal lands
- Wilderness reviews and management
- ANILCA implementation, e.g., federal land plans serve as basis for today’s management

Instructors: Over a dozen presenters with federal and non-federal subject matter expertise and ANILCA experience.

Training objectives: Seek a greater understanding of this sweeping legislation and its influence on conservation policy, business opportunities, Alaska residents’ way of life, resource development, and public land management in Alaska. Understanding ANILCA assists both federal managers and non-federal stakeholders in finding implementation solutions that continue to balance conservation and Alaska’s unique circumstances.

Recommended for: Federal agencies with ANILCA implementation responsibilities, state and local land and resource managers, Native corporations, tribal entities, rural residents, inholders, as well as community leaders, policy makers, consultants, news media, the academic community, and interested individuals.

Materials included: Printed copy of ANILCA & Amendments; printed curriculum packet with presentation and other supporting documents; and USB thumb drive with an extensive collection of relevant laws, regulations, and other reference materials.

Cost: General Registration $875

Register: by Oct 17, 2022 to ensure delivery of advance course materials by mail

Maximum enrollment: 75 participants

Late Registration: $50 late registration fee to cover expedited material delivery

Deposit: General registration includes a non-refundable $75 deposit

No Refunds: Unless a replacement can be found

Sponsored: This course is offered in partnership with the US Department of the Interior University (DOIU), building on a curriculum developed in 2004 with an appropriation from Congress – and now substantially improved to meet contemporary needs.

To Register, go to the Institute of the North:

<https://institutenorth.org/engage/events/anilca-training/>

Then choose the appropriate registration portal for federal employees or for general registration through the Institute of the North.

Course questions? Contact Roger Pearson, ANILCA Training moderator at rpearson@institutenorth.org

Registration and logistical questions? Contact Hanna Eklund at 907-313-6986 or heklund@institutenorth.org

Presented by the Institute of the North
715 L Street, Suite 300
Anchorage, Alaska 99501
www.institutenorth.org

